PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I welcome you to Coronation 48 – Fun with Flags. I have been honoured to serve as President again this year. Being a member of the Executive Board is not easy; however, I am continuously grateful for the opportunity to serve this organization and our community.

I have no doubt we will hear the words “record-breaking” more than once this evening as this year is the first to raise more than $100,000. I often wonder what Millicent would say if she saw us now! As our organization continues to grow, our volunteer positions are becoming more and more of a full-time commitment. My years as President have shown burnout happens quicker and quicker with each reign. I will forever be grateful for the members that step up to take on these commitments, and events such as Coronation will continue to remind us why we do what we do.

Vanity, Colin, Gabe, Orpheus, Winter & Voula – You should be proud of your work this year. The drag scene in our city has exploded over the last few years, and you were all able to keep the ISCWR relevant and revered in our saturated community. As we continue to build off the reigns before us, I know the hard work this year will be why reigns after you succeed.

Thank you to our membership for your continued support, encouragement and love. It's always a delicate balance between progress and respect for tradition, and I believe our ISCWR family is the best representation of both sides.

I remain in service,

President of the Board

The John DeSmit Citizen Of The Year Award

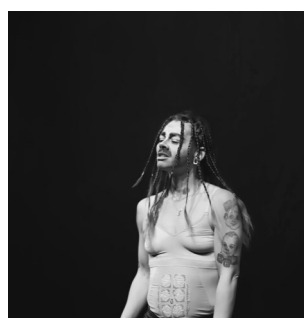

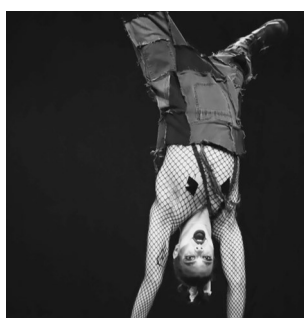

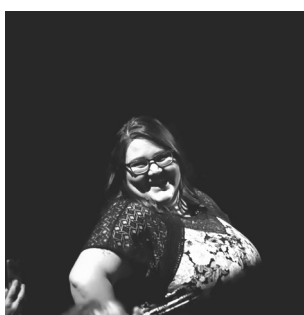

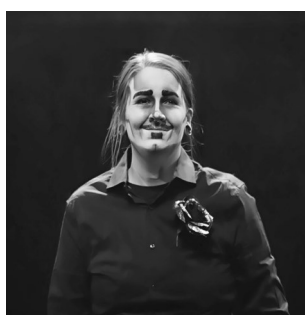

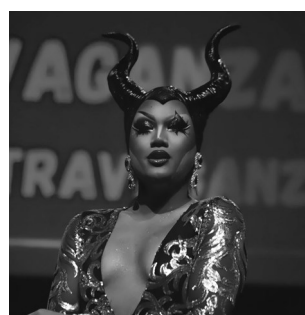

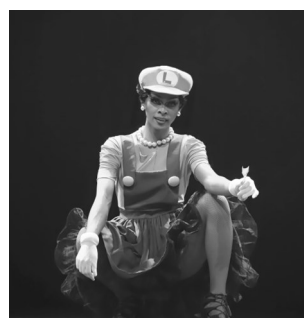

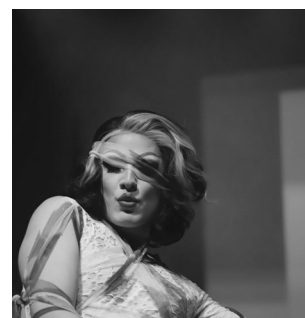

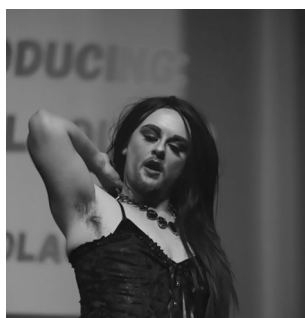

The Citizen of the year award is presented to a person who has contributed freely to making the gay community a better place to live. This contribution, although not necessarily publicly acclaimed, is one that allows each of us to move through life more freely and with more companionship among our neighbours and acquaintances.

John DeSmit was a man at ease with life and who socialized freely with everyone around him. He loved having a good time and demanded nothing from those he encountered. He showed the unaware that gay people are worth caring about. He was himself cared about by many people from all walks of life and his untimely death was a tragic loss to all who knew him.

You have made your community, the ISCWR, and me very proud.

It has been an honour once again to serve as In-Town Half. Vanity, thank you for allowing me to be even one small piece of this journey with you. You will never forget the things you wished you had done differently or that did not go as planned, but I will remind you how much you accomplished and how deserving you are of the title Emprex. To our esteemed guests, fellow monarchs, and most especially, to the stepping-down House of They, Them, and Theirs... Fun with Flags,

It has been an absolute honour and privilege to be a part of this year's reign, even if only at a distance. The current social and political climate is one of hostility, and simply existing with a sense of authenticity and honesty in who you are is an act of bravery more and more, it seems.

Vanity and Colin, thank you for allowing me space to be of support to you both during your year. It's been evident that this year has been one of growth and self-discovery for you both, and I couldn't be prouder to stand alongside you.

Congratulations to the entire 47th Imperial House!

ANNIVERSARY MONARCH, EMPRESS XLVI, GoDIVA

Stepping down is such an interesting feeling, going from exhausted, running on empty, grind grind grind at 110% to cross that finishing line to a glorious high of celebration to an almost instant feeling of disconnect. The void of nothing. Nothing to plan. Nothing to do. I was looking forward to the break, desperately needed it in fact, but it was still like a shock of cold water on a hot day, uncomfortable at first and then oh so soothing and relaxing.

Vanity, Colin, Orpheus, Gabe, Voula, Winter, Reign 47 has done such an amazing job. I look on it with jealousy and pride. Jealous that they easily smashed the records we broke and proud that some of the seeds we helped plant bore even better flowers. Every reign tends our beautiful Rose Garden; nurturing, pruning, and planting to ensure continued success and vibrancy for years to come. As Dowager I have tried to help by lending my voice, supporting, leading by example, and rescuing when needed. Thanks for keeping me included.

Reign 48 you have big shoes to fill but I have faith that you will continue to grow our garden, there are thorns to watch out for but the blossoms are oh so beautiful.

I continue to be grateful for the team I was blessed with and still cherish the memories we made. Rob let's try to get coffee meetings more often, I miss those perhaps most of all. Peter thanks for being there for my day to day, everyday. Love you, you're simply the best.

Congratulations to the 47 th Imperial House on their reign. It was great to see so many things started during our Reign continued and expanded to ongoing success. My physical step-backs this year were never mirrored with an emotional step-back. I've watched with such interest and pride as our organization continues to break down barriers, have important conversations, lead the way for change and success in the ICS, and most importantly, fundraise the fugg out of this city!

DECADE MONARCH, EMPREX XXXVII, VANITY FAIR

It's hard to believe how quickly ten years can fly by. Reign 37 was a tricky year, with no queer venues to hold fundraisers, the fear was that our little ISCWR would crumble and fold. That wasn't an option for our upper house. We were determined to see the court through the year, so many more years of tradition and noble deeds could carry on long into the future.

I never dreamed our organization could ever be tested again in such a severe way... Covid ~ Hold my beer! Lol It was a huge challenge but the members of the ISCWR did what they always do, push on, try new ideas, persevere and strive to make every reign as successful as possible; and that's what we did. So here we are 10 years later, Reign 47 and our organization is strong, diverse, relevant and still doing amazing things years after year. We are set to set a fundraising record for our organization. The community, title holders, board and membership have never been stronger and I can't help but think we learned a lot of that in 37.

Thank-you to everyone for attending this evening for all your love and continued support of the ISCWR, year after year!

DECADE MONARCH, EMPEROR XXXVII, JJ VELOUR

Wow! 10 years already. I can still remember when I was just a newbie just coming into the court and Oh My.... meeting the famous Vanity Fair! I was so nervous back then. But over time I became comfortable becoming Jj Velour. When I ran for Emperor 37, I was very excited, ready, and wanted to leave my imprint with the court. When I won the vote, I was in shock and oh did I cry. I didn't stop until Vanity looked at me and said, "Alright! You need to stop because we need to make some decisions!" The year was very different, closing down just about all our venues and always needing to find new ones. Meeting people from all over Canada and the States and making long lasting friendships. Those memories have stuck with me and I am so grateful for the time I spent with the court.

Over the years since my time with the court, I became a grandfather to four wonderful kids. My husband and I even adopted one of the grandchildren, raising a very active and determined child. Abbey is seven now and loving her time in Taekwondo, getting A's in all her classes at school and has so much energy that I definitely cannot keep up.

I no longer work for NorQuest College but decided to buy Kinkstore. I have been running the store for over 3 years now and love what I get to do. It has been a huge learning curve and I still make mistakes but am trying very hard to make it a success.

I am looking forward to coming back this Coronation and seeing everyone again. I may have more grey hair, gained more weight than I want and cannot fit into my leathers anymore, but damn it, I am getting back on that stage to perform again. Congratulations to this year's reign on a successful year and to creating more memories to look back on.

Yours truly, His Imperial and Sovereign Majesty, Emperor 37 Jj Velour

QUADRUPLE DECADE MONARCHS, EMPRESS VII, MRS K & EMPEROR VII, SAM

"Some time ago, I was writing my thesis, and included the information that I had been an active drag queen (so that readers would have some insight into why I am so critical of the social constructions of gender.) Years go by, and for the first time ever, a student read my thesis, discovered this fact, and shared it with fellow students. And so, I was peppered with questions about "What was it like to do drag?" (I think that my students believe that it's all RuPaul's Drag Race...)

The answer I give doesn't seem to be what they expect: I tell them that many of the things I've achieved in life can be directly attributed to the skills I learned as Empress: I learned about leadership and motivation, and that gave me the skills me to lead the boards of my national professional association, and one of my favourite charities. It taught me about how to work with others and to inspire, and that has contributed to my being a lecturer at the University (for some 20 years now.) It taught me independence, which has endowed me with the skills I've used to provide services in rural communities. And it taught me to accept people and make friends easily, which has brought me the gift of working with BC's many First Nations communities.

And so, being Empress was and is, a gift. Don't ever let anyone speak badly about drag or tell you that you are somehow lesser, trite, or silly because you do drag. Be proud of the work that you do, the joy that you bring to others, and the joy that drag has brought to you.

That joy is what I most value about having been Empress: Learning to be joyous has given me strength and helped me through good times and bad. I made friends across the nation and internationally, many of whom I still have great times with. That joy helped me through the dark, early days of HIV, and to challenge death with laughter. As the saying goes "Angels can fly because they can take themselves lightly."

To folks here and there, a few mentions: Fond regards to my friend Darrin, here in Edmonton – Every time seeing you is a happy time. And to friends elsewhere: To Ross and Rory, it's always so good to spend time with you. To Doug and to Ali – Although seeing you means a cross country trip, you always make it worthwhile. To Simon on the Island: Your insights and good sense certainly keep me on the right path. And to my Buddies at home: Clark and Larry: You just make every day easier – Let's go to the beach!

To Tanner Steele: So lovely to get to know you since meeting on stage, in Vancouver. Thanks, too, to Vanity Fair, who has been so supportive over this past year. And to Sam, who reigned with me all those years ago: not a day goes by that I don't think of you in some way.

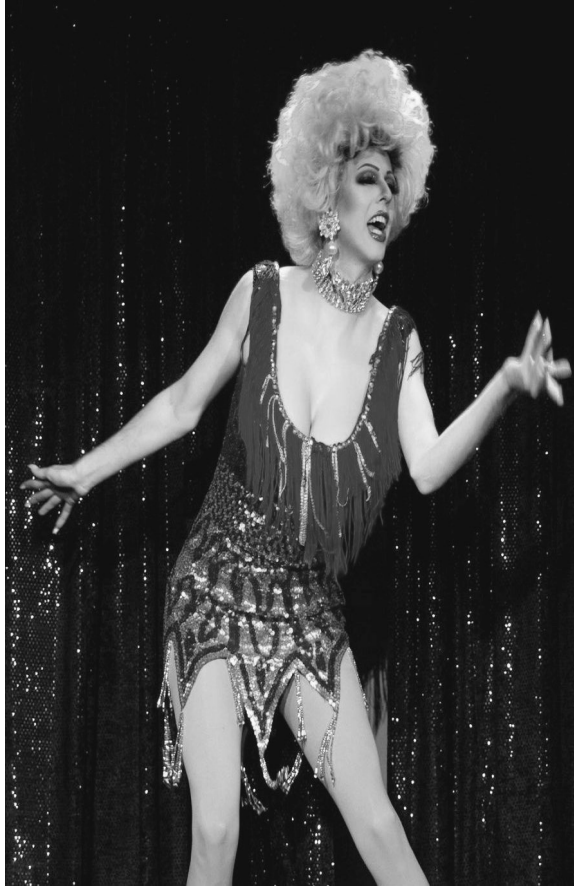

If, like me, you're reading this the next day, I hope you had an excellent time at the ball. Congrats to the new Emperor and Empress. You have a life changing year ahead. Bring the best of all of your gifts, and you'll reap thrice fold the benefits and more.

All of my love,

Empress 7, Mrs. K."

THIER MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN GRACE, GRAND DUCHESS XLVII, WINTER ROSE EH

Two years ago, I moved to Edmonton. As I was checking out the drag scene, I kept hearing about this local organization called the ISCWR. I never really understood what it stood for, or what they were about, so I decided that I wanted to check out their next event. Which, funny enough, turned out to be Coronation 47 for the Imperial Sovereign Court of the Wild Rose. This night was truly something I'll never forget, whether it was GoDiva, Pepper, and Ladonna Cree tearing up the stage, or the genuine kindness Carrie Du'way and Tanner Steele and many others shared when this random stranger showed up. From there I was invited to come check out their monthly meetings, and then there was no turning back.

I haven't been a part of this organization for long, but each year, from Rob and GoDiva, to Vanity and Colin, and each of their upper houses. Watching first hand, how many folks are passionate about helping our community and giving back, it's beyond inspiring. That feeling never goes away. There's far too many people to thank to write them all here, but for anyone who helped out with Reign 47, whether you performed, sold 50/50, did lighting, sound, set-up, tear-down, running around, or just showing up to our events. Thank you. We could not have done this year without everyone who has helped us along the way.

And finally, after a long twelve months, it's time for Spring!

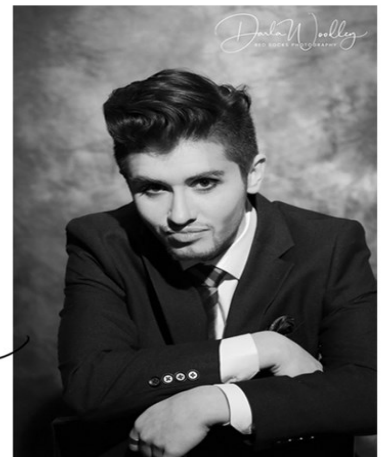

Forever,
Their most Imperial Grand Duchess 47

THEIR MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN HIGHNESS, PRINCET XLVII, GABE ITCH

As I look back on my year as Princet my brain is flooded with memories. Some absolutely incredible memories, some happy and some sad memories, my successes, and my mistakes splash into my mind in a bright imperfect colour mural.

When the year started, I really didn't know what to expect. I had an idea after being on the board and reigning as MX. Gay during Reign 46, but with the mix of covid lock downs, and covid coronations, and still being a newer member of the organization, I felt like I had made a splash, but hadn't quite dove in headfirst into the ISCWR. Cut to Reign 47.

Before even being Crowned as Princet a small group of ISCWR bopped over to Regina for their coronation. It was in Regina I learned just how tightly woven the international court system was. It was like walking into family reunion even though I didn't know anyone. The folks from Regina welcomed me with open arms and made me feel like I had been involved for years. It felt like coming home. And that's what I love about our community and ICS family, that no matter how long or short a time you've known someone they will always be there for you!

- Also I will never forget my first ever crowning at an out-of-town coronation as the "Little Beaver" I will cherish my beautiful crown (hat) forever!

Shortly after Regina we had Investiture, the official kick off for my year as Princet, and if you couldn't tell from the chaos in the photos during crowning, we knew we were in for one interesting year. Orpheus, Voula, and Winter, we really went on a rollercoaster ride of a lifetime. We had our ups and downs and sometimes even got off track, but when we look back at what we accomplished over this year there is something to be said for teamwork and perseverance. Nothing for me though will beat how wonderfully dumb our first brunch at Campio was! Winter tripped on a pot, Colin dressed as Mario for a Celine song, I rolled around on the ground. Pretty sure Vanity, Voula, and Orpheus were professionals... I'm pretty sure! LOL! It was truly the Kick off of the year.

Vanity and Colin thank you for all that you did this year! Colin, Emperor Corn Fritter and Campio Brunch King! Vanity Fair, Emprex to the Veterans and Guardian of the Legion. El Capitanos of the Ball Game, I know being monarchs is not easy, but you two lead by example and were always there when the rest of us had questions. you both worked so hard this year, you both battled your mental health and have made it through to the other side! Throughout the year you both managed to surprise me... I will never forget Vanity performing "Into the Unknown" from Frozen 2 at Leather, Feathers and Fur with a tail, or Colin performing "Hands to Myself" with literal tiny hands. Thank you both for scaring my brain! Congratulations on an incredible year and for your guidance and leadership.

There are a million other people to thank, but one person in particular for me I need to thank. Empress 50 of Vancouver, Fancy Pants. You have been a light in my life since I met you at your crowning! You have impacted my life in ways I don't think you understand. You have a way of getting through to me that no one else does, and you have given me some incredible advice on life and about the ICS and I cannot thank you enough! You have been an inspiration, you have led by example, challenged yourself as Empress, and represented Vancouver and yourself with grace all the while always staying true to who you are. I am so glad I have gotten to be a part of your journey and honoured you have been a part of mine.

Thank you all for a beautiful year,

Always,

THEIR MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN MAJESTY, EMPREX XLVII, VANITY FAIR

Ten years ago the campaign started with plees...DON'T RUN! The ISCWR can't survive what lies ahead and when it collapses everyone will blame you! I didn't listen. This time around it was ...are you sure you wanna do this again?...It never feels the same as the first kick at the crown. If you're trying to improve on those old memories it may not happen, it could be worse. I didn't listen. I am so glad that when it really counts I am able to tune everything out and listen to my heart. While reign 37 was a challenge I would not trade that experience for anything, and this year has been the most amazing and rewarding journey yet I have taken with my court family. It all happens for a reason and when the time is right for a Monarch the cards fall into place. This was that year for me, I guess a do over year in a lot of ways but in more ways building on the success of that reign 10 years ago.

The ISCWR is my heart and home, always will be. The people who make the court what it is locally, nationally, internationally are some of the most genuine people I know. Always growing, changing, evolving. Much like the organization we represent we have to continue to grow to survive. I am always amazed by the ISCWR's ability to stand its ground, face adversity and come out on the other side stronger and better than before. We survived and fought through the pandemic with two successful reigns, and what seemed like an impassable mountain was merely a bump in the road. Two reigns later the ISCWR is back, stronger than ever. We are back on track, reclaimed our place in the community and poised for change, big change, change that needs to happen for the future and the reign ahead is young and has the drive and passion to take us to the future as a viable, modern community organization. My hope is that we did our best to make every individual feel seen, feel welcome and safe. Sometimes the hardest tasks can be boiled down to reaching out, connecting and saying thank you! That's all anyone wants at the end of the day. I am proud to see so many diverse faces newly involved this year and going on to be title holders and supporters in our efforts to make our small corner of the world a better place!

Ruby Hymen you have become one of my closest and most treasured friends. I can't thank you enough for all you have done this year. From day one making sure our Upper House and title holders for the entire reign were tricked out in the finest regalia. Thank you for helping us shine bright like a....ummm well you know the rest. LOL Reminding me regularly to breathe and see the positive. Thank you for our endless chats and laughs, they have been a huge part of getting me through this exhausting year. I can't thank you enough my friend. Love you always!

I won't call her Dogwager, has been, wuzzy. LOL No no no I won't call her any of those things because the truth is Godiva is a sister and friend for life and a Legendary Empress in her own right. I never expected you would be one of my biggest supports this year. As an anniversary Monarch you have truly gone above and beyond the call of duty. A seat on the board with a unique and supportive perspective was much appreciated but your ability to take on a task and take it off our plate was so much more help than you can imagine. The ISCWR does 500 times more things in a year than we did ten years ago so having even the smallest event or project in good hands and be successful was worth more than you know. Sisters for life we are, I have no doubt. Love you <3

Rob and the amazing team at Evolution Wonderlounge, I don't think any of you truly appreciate what an important role you play in Edmonton's queer community. Some of our biggest fundraising successes happened within your walls. Thanks for supporting Colin and I's vision for events and the endless support of the ISCWR as an organization for the past decade. We look forward to many more successes together in the reigns to come <3

My Halves, Tosheena, Jacque, Satina and Chris, you all know me well enough to know how independent and stubborn I am. Distance prevents a lot of hands on help but the messages, check ins and offer to do whatever I need meant so much. Thank you for representing Edmonton far and wide, please know I will put you all to work ball week and NO Satina I do not have time to do your wigs lmao <3

Reign 47 Board of Directors! It may be bold to say but I feel like this reign had almost the perfect team in place from the get go, board and upper house. The weight of the busy year was a lot but all in all it ran so smoothly, without any major hiccups and that is all in part to your hard work and contributions. Thank you! Cody you did such an amazing job in your first year as treasurer. Thank you for streamlining our money handling procedures and for always being there with whatever we needed for every event. It is a big job and much appreciated. Patrick, there are no words to thank you for your work this year in communications. You were always 10 steps ahead of everyone and had tasks done, posters designed and messages posted before many of us even had a chance to think of them. I don't think you realize how much stress that takes off absolutely everyone. Thank you! Tanner, in my 25 years with this organization no College President has ever done the magnificent job you did this year, myself included! Outstanding, thank you! Tosheena, my only requirement of you as Half Empress was to continue doing the amazing job you were doing as President of the Board. And you did that, you always do that! I know you are exhausted and drained from three years as president but I want you to know that you have changed this organization for the better in countless ways. Thank you for all the hard work with the baseball game planning, I know it was a huge addition to your regular tasks but it paid off in one of the most amazing fundraising events we have ever been involved in. Thank you my sister <3

My 47th Imperial House of They, Them and Theirs! I see us as a team and want to thank you all for being such an amazing team this year. It has been an incredible, busy year but I think at the end of the road the work speaks for itself. We accomplished so much and the work we did will help so many people, in the future of the ISCWR and directly through donations. The work we do and deeds we do changes people's lives! It changes us too, I knew going into this we were each going to have our own personal struggles and that the hard work of the reign would add to those struggles. I am so proud of each and every one of us for growing, overcoming and becoming stronger individuals through all of this. We are not the same humans that were crowned 12 months ago, we are better versions of those people and I cannot wait to see what the future has in store for each of us. Colin and I cannot thank you enough for your dedication, determination to overcome and all your hard work and sacrifice. I promise when we hand out those cheques tonight it will all make sense. Hugs and Love <3 such a successful year!

HIS MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN MAJESTY, EMPEROR XLVII, COLIN BAE

Hello Guys, Gals and Non-Binary Pals!
Thank you all for travelling near and far to celebrate with us!

To say this year was more than what I expected, would be an understatement. When I submitted my application for Emperor 13 months ago, I couldn't have imagined all the things we would accomplished this year. Although it was not always easy, I look back on the year with a full heart and smile on my face. I couldn't be more proud to be apart of this amazing organization and community. We set out with one major goal this year, to be inclusive and welcoming to all. Although there is always more work to be done, I know we made steps in the right direction.

VANITY- WE DID IT! Thank you for hearing me out and joining me on this wild ride. The year had its ups and its down, but we held our heads high and pushed through with class (and a little bit of sass). I hope your second kick at the can was everything you wanted it to be. We divided and conquered on more than one occasion, and the trust we had in each other is what lead to our successes. I promise if we do this again, my car will have air conditioning. <3

ORPHEUS – Why you agreed to do this again, I will never understand but I am forever thankful. I couldn't imagine having anyone else as my Prince. You were always there to pick up the slack, listen to my crazy ideas, and stick up for the underdog. You were quick to help me whenever I needed, whether it was running around to pick items up for silent auctions, or being there to provide a laugh or throw a little shade. I know you will achieve anything and everything you put your mind to. Okay thanks bye!

VOULA – I cannot be more proud of you. YOU WERE READY AND YOU DESERVED IT! You worked your butt off this year, and I hope when you reflect on the year you do so with a smile. Your hard work, dedication and support to the reign is more than I could have ever imagined from my Dutchess. Thank you for doing this year with beauty, poise and professionalism. #SinglesWeekend

GABE & WINTER – You both brought so much to the team and you both should be very proud. I cannot wait to see what your future holds. Whatever you set your minds to, I know you will achieve it. Thank you for everything.

TANNER – My Emperor, and now my Half. I am so happy we finally got to experience an out-of-town coronation together. I can confidentially say that without you giving me the opportunity to be your Prince in Reign 45, I wouldn't have been half of the Emperor I am today. Thank you for your support, love and guidance over the last year. #SinglesWeekend HELLACIOUS – Thank you so much for being my out-of-town half! Your support and messages throughout the reign helped to keep my head above water. I'm so happy we were able to spend time together in Vancouver, and that you are here with me tonight.

TOSHEENA - #Tosheena4PermanentPresident... Can't blame me for trying! Thank you for everything you did this year, you were an incredible president and even a better friend. Half of this reign wouldn't have happened without your dedication towards the raffles, 50/50s and keeping us all on track. You are utterly amazing. You have more than earned a well-deserved break. <3

ASHLEY – Mi amor... No hay palabras para expresar el aprecio y amor que te tengo. Cuando te conté mi plan para asumir el cargo de Emperador, saltaste conmigo y nunca miraste hacia atrás. Has estado a mi lado para cada éxito, cada desafío y cada pérdida. No habría sobrevivido este año sin ti, y no hay nadie más a quien hubiera querido que me tomara de la mano durante este viaje. No solo fuiste una pareja que me apoya, sino un miembro sólido de la junta. Gracias por ser la luz en mis tiempos oscuros, mi caja de resonancia, y, aún más importante, mi pareja de por vida. Te amo.

MOM – Although I love our facetime chats, you being here means more to me than I can express. Without you I wouldn't be the person I am today. You taught me how to be kind, the importance in giving back, and how to work my butt off to succeed. Thank you for your unconditional love and support over the last year.

You too TWIGGY!

None of this year would have been possible without the support from our community and sponsors. Thank you Evolution Wonderlounge for allowing us to host many events, Red Socks Photography for always getting my good side, DOH for giving us an endless portal to look back on for years to come, and to Hymen Designs for keeping us shining.

Vancouver, Calgary & Winnipeg: Thank you for your hospitality and kindness during my out-town coronations. So many amazing friendships were built that I know will last a lifetime.

Thank you to every single person who shared our events, purchased raffle & 50/50 tickets, and showed up to events to volunteer and enjoy. Without you none of this would be possible.

Although the year is over, I know my time working for this amazing organization will only continue for the years to come. I look forward to what the future brings for this organization and wish our next monarchs the best of luck.

Nan, I hope I made you proud.

HIS MOST IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN HIGHNESS, PRINCE XLVII, ORPHEUS

Thank you to all those who were supportive of myself and our team this past year (and last year!); we have done some pretty incredible work and have a lot to be proud of. Thank you to Colin and Vanity for asking me to be your Prince, it has been an honour and I hope I've done you proud. Thanks to Winter and Gabe for the opportunity to work alongside you both for the first time, it was a good learning experience for us all. Thank you to my love (Voula) for doing this alongside me, I love you, and you are love! Also, thank you to Rob and GoDiva for your continued support and guidance; I learned a lot in Reign 46 and felt like I was able to apply that knowledge and experience successfully in my role this year.

Although of course the Upper House and board have done a lot, I'd like to also specifically thank those who did a ton of "behind the scenes" work and attended meetings and events, constantly volunteering their time, and often without sufficient thanks or appreciation. It is these people that allow our work to be done with great success. Some names that come to mind are Tilda, Christy, Billie, Jennie, Derek, Indecisive, Mama Indecisive, Shauna, Mama League, and Bubbles – I am definitely sure I'm forgetting a couple names but thank you to the aforementioned people (and whoever I missed) for all your help and support this reign, whether formal or not, we see you and we are so thankful. Success and leadership doesn't always have to come in the form of a title, and these people exhibit this perfectly.

To those titleholders, board members, and volunteers who will be carrying this organization forward in the year(s) to come, I wish you the best of luck and hope that you will decide to be a part of change and growth and commit to take the ISCWR into a period of real growth and reflection. We have much to be proud of over 47 years, but we cannot rest on this success and must continue to push for equity, accountability, and accessibility as we move forward because these are areas with significant room for improvement in the ISCWR.

It's never about the monetary amount at the end of the year, it's about making meaningful and long-term positive impacts in and around our community and to those whom we commit to supporting. Being uncomfortable and acknowledging our wrongs is an integral part of growth, and must be followed by meaningful and non-performative action. I would like to encourage all in this room to reflect on your involvement and actions over your time in the ISCWR (whether that's been 4 months, 4 years, or 4 decades), and think about what steps you might take to go further, to reach out of your comfort zone. To think beyond fundraising and the 12-month cycle. To be a leader. To be at the forefront as we move towards a more equitable and just ISCWR and in turn, a more equitable and just world. If this organization wishes to see itself become truly inclusive and equitable to all, there are some major changes and culture shifts that need to happen, and I hope the members of the ISCWR are open and ready to make these changes as we inch closer to celebrating fifty years of fundraising and activism.

Thank you all, and good night!

His Most Imperial and Sovereign Majesty, Imperial Crown Prince 47, Orpheus

HER MOST IMPERIAL SOVERIGN GRACE. GRAND DUCHESS XLVII, VOULA CALLAS

This is a long time coming. In 2018 I was asked to be Entertainer of the Year, but had to decline because I was unable to commit and knew I was not ready. I was stuck in an unhappy place and felt pressured to stay in it because of what others wanted from me, and avoided what I truly wanted for myself. It takes a lot of courage to be yourself and you're inevitably going to disappoint some people along the way, but I've learned that this is just noise distracting you from the ultimate goal of living as your most authentic self. I'm so honoured to have been Duchess of Reign 47 and contribute to this successful record breaking year. Drag is not easy, and I worked hard to build a name for myself in this community over the last 6 years and I finally felt that I was at a point in my career to commit myself to this organization. Nothing was handed to me and I proved myself to be an amazing performer, earning respect from my fellow peers and receiving help from generous queens who saw something in me along the way. So yes, in all seriousness I want people to know this: I was READY and I DESERVED it.

With so much love, your Greek starlet,
the incomparable Voula Callas

Congratulations to all the people who made this past year so memorable and a triumphant success. Thank you Vanity Fair and Colin Bae for personally hand picking me to be your Entertainer of the Year. I still remember when Colin came up to me and asked me. Vanity was across the room and gave me a smile as I nodded yes. I immediately said yes because I respect and love both of you.

My favorite quote of the year was at our Bursary Bingo. "B-1! The number that started it all". Fast forward to today and here you both are finishing it all.

THE 34TH MX GAY EDMONTON — JENNIE TALIA

Hello everyone, thank you so much everyone for joining us tonight to celebrate the amazing fundraising efforts of reign 47. This past reign has been truly one to remember, being able to hold the title of Mx Gay Edmonton and be able to represent myself as the loud and proud queer non binary individual I am within and outside of the court has been truly life changing and for that I am truly grateful. To the monarch's and upper house of reign 47, thank you for all the amazing opportunities I was given during my reign as Mx Gay Edmonton, and congratulations on an absolutely amazing job this past reign, all the hard work and dedication to this past reign is seen and you all should be so proud of what you and your reign have accomplished. In the words of Jasmine Kennedy "this is your moment, have it". The reign may be ending tonight but it will live on forever.

In the end I remain,

The Queen Of The Snow Fairies,

Ms Mary Christmas 2020

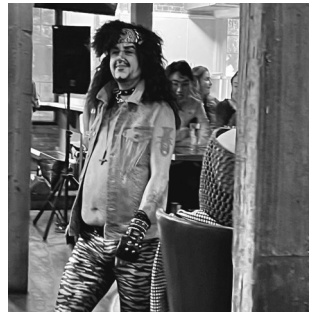

The Enby-ience Of Beauty, Mx Gay Edmonton 34
